

Taylor County's After-Hours Plan

Access to Emergency Services

1. Individuals and families will be referred to Taylor County Supportive Housing (715-785-5212) Taylor County Housing is staffed from 8-4:30 Monday through Friday. To access services after hours, homeless individuals and families may contact the Taylor County Sheriff's Office at (715-748-2200 Ext 5). Taylor County Sheriff's Office may provide a motel voucher and then will connect them to Taylor County Supportive Housing.

If someone is fleeing domestic violence:

1. Contact Stepping Stones in Medford (715-748-5140).
2. Law enforcement can also issue a motel voucher and will be connected to Coordinated Entry.

Connections to Coordinated Entry

Individuals and households that are sheltered through The Salvation Army, Taylor County Supportive Housing, or local police will be referred to Coordinated Entry through Taylor County Supportive Housing (715-785-5212).

Individuals and households that are sheltered through Stepping Stones will be referred to Taylor County Supportive Housing to provide access to Coordinated Entry during normal business hours. Appointed staff are trained to assess the clients that are sheltered or need to access homeless services.

Clark County's After-Hours Plan

Access to Emergency Services

1. Individuals and families will be referred to House of Mercy Shelter (715-634-1050 or 715-743-5233). House of Mercy Shelter is staffed from 8-4 Monday through Friday with phone access available until 9:00PM. To access additional services after hours, homeless individuals and families may contact the Abbotsford/Colby police at (715-223-4944), Loyal Police at (715-255-8986) or Clark County Sheriff at (715-743-3157 or dial 911) for shelter resources options.

If someone is fleeing domestic violence:

1. Contact Clark County Domestic Abuse in Neillsville (715-743-6401).

Clark County Continued

1. Law enforcement can also issue a motel voucher.

Connection to Coordinated Entry

1. Individuals and households that are sheltered through House of Mercy or local police will be referred to Coordinated Entry through The Salvation Army (715-529-0981).
2. If individuals or households are sheltered through Clark County Domestic Abuse, they will be referred to The Salvation Army (715-529-0981) to provide access to the Coordinated Entry System. Appointed staff are trained to assess the clients that are residing at a DV shelter or need to access homeless service.

Rusk County's After-Hours Plan

Access to Emergency Services

1. Individuals and families will be referred to Lighthouse Shelter (715-609-9600). The Lighthouse is staffed from 8-4 Monday through Friday with 24-hour phone access.

To access additional services after hours:

1. Homeless individuals and families may contact the Ladysmith police at (715-532-2186 or dial 911). Ladysmith Police will contact the police Chaplain

If someone is fleeing domestic violence:

1. Contact Embrace in Ladysmith (715-532-6976).
2. Law enforcement can also be contacted for additional services.

Connection to Coordinated Entry

1. Individuals and households that are sheltered through The Salvation Army, Lighthouse, or local police will be referred to Coordinated Entry.
2. If individuals or households are sheltered through Embrace, they will be referred to the Lighthouse shelter (715-609-9600) or The Salvation Army (715-529-0981) to provide access to the Coordinated Entry System. Appointed staff are trained to assess the clients that are residing at a DV shelter or need to access homeless service.

Sawyer County's After-Hours Plan

Access to Emergency Services

1. Individuals and families may contact the Hayward police at (715-934-8962 or dial 911) for additional shelter options.

If someone is fleeing domestic violence:

1. Contact Oak Wood Haven in Hayward 1-800-796-9603.
2. Law enforcement can also be contacted for additional services.

Connection to Coordinated Entry

1. Individuals and households that are sheltered through The Salvation Army or local police will be referred to Coordinated Entry through The Salvation Army (715-529-0981).
2. If individuals or households are sheltered through Oak Wood Haven, they will be referred to the Salvation Army (715-529-0981) to provide access to the Coordinated Entry System during normal business hours. Appointed staff are trained to assess the clients that are residing at a DV shelter or need to access homeless service.

Burnett County's After-Hours Plan

Access to Emergency Services

1. Individuals and families will be referred to SA Faith House Emergency Shelter (715-349- 8744). Faith house is staffed from 8-4 Monday through Friday. Access by phone is 24 hours per day. Faith house will provide a motel voucher after hours. Emergency transportation is provided by local law enforcement.
2. Interfaith Caregivers (715-866-4970) for additional shelter options after hours. Phone access is available 24 hours per day.
3. If either program is unable to be reached, Siren Police (715-349-7181), St. Croix Tribal Police (715-349-8638), and Burnett County Sheriff's Department may also be able to issue motel vouchers.

If someone is fleeing domestic violence:

1. Contact Community Referral Agency in Milltown (800-261-7233).

Burnett County continued

2. Law enforcement can also be contacted for additional services.

Connection to Coordinated Entry

1. Individuals and households that are sheltered through the Salvation Army, Interfaith caregivers, or local police will be referred to Coordinated Entry through The Salvation Army (715-349- 8744 or 715-529-0981).
2. If individuals or households are sheltered through the Community Referral Agency, they will be referred to Salvation Army to provide access to the Coordinated Entry System. Appointed staff are trained to do the VSPDAT with clients that are residing at a DV shelter or need to access homeless service.

Washburn County's After-Hours Plan

Access to Emergency Services

1. Individuals and families may contact Washburn County Sheriff at (715-468-4700 or dial 911) for additional shelter resources.

If someone is fleeing domestic violence:

1. Call or text Embrace in Ladysmith 715-532-6976.
2. Law enforcement can also be contacted for additional services.

Connection to Coordinated Entry

1. Individuals and households that are given motel vouchers by police will be referred to Coordinated Entry through The Salvation Army (715-529-0981).
2. If individuals or households are sheltered through Embrace, they will be referred to The Salvation Army (715-529-0981) to provide access to the Coordinated Entry System during normal business hours. Appointed staff are trained to assess the clients that are residing in a DV shelter or need to access homeless service.